- Design leader and design thinker.
- Rigorous and committed to excellence.
- Willing to work on meaningful projects.
- Dedicated to client success.
- Involved with the community and the design industry.
- Strong team player.

YOUR ROLE

As a Senior Interior Designer with ten years of experience, you are passionate about your profession and combine creativity and technical knowledge with business skills. You have exceptional design skills, a strong work ethic and are responsible for interpreting, organizing, and executing the conceptual design of a project utilizing creativity, foresight, and judgment to meet project requirements and objectives to carry out the design to completion. You are to inspire by your boundless creativity and passion for design with younger designers as well as instill a sense of responsibility that when one begins to design, they do so with purpose. You are an integral member of the design team contributing a point of view and participation in the conceptual thought process and design exploration.

AXIS PURPOSE

Axis's core purpose is to elevate design through collaboration, designing with intent and innovation. We are a firm that holds design as the most important element of our work through a culture of mutual respect, trust, accountability, and client-centricity. Together we work with a set of principles to create timeless architecture and interior environments.

AXIS VALUES

At Axis, we view architecture and design as equals. We value diversity. We value equality. We work in an open environment and believe collaboration is the key to thoughtful, forward-looking design.

We value trust among and between all levels of the organization. Without trust and a strong sense of shared accountability, a healthy culture is not possible.

Because of the nature of our business, it is also essential that we value and prioritize a client-centric mindset – meaning we are keeping the best interest of our clients and their success at the center of all we do. Without driving success for our clients, we cannot continue to be successful in our hypercompetitive industry.
